II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Jurisdiction arises under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206-207, the Portal-to-Portal Act, 29 U.S.C. §251 et seq., and for the supplemental Illinois statutory claims, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367. Venue lies in the Northern District of Illinois in that during all times relevant to the employment relationship, Plaintiff performed work in this district and is a resident of this district and Defendants are or was engaged in business in this district.

III. THE PARTIES

3. Defendant, NORTHWEST PAIN MANAGEMENT CENTER, LTD, provides medical services, chiropractic services, nutrition counseling, in addition to several pain management services for customers. During all relevant times Defendant was acting directly or indirectly in the interest of the employer in relation to the employee Plaintiff and therefore, as defined under both the federal and state statutes relied upon, is an “employer.”

4. Defendants LAURA A. CRANE, INDIVIDUALLY AND NICOLE GIACOPOLI, INDIVIDUALLY, are owners/management of Northwest Pain Management Center, LTD, and at all times relevant hereto were acting directly or indirectly in the interest of the employer in relation to the employee Plaintiff and therefore, as defined under both the federal and state statutes relied upon, are “employers”.

5. Plaintiff, ALEXANDRA MONACO, is a past employee who performed work for Defendants in the front office performing general clerical office and customer service duties (hereinafter referred to as “the named Plaintiff”). All other unnamed Plaintiffs known and unknown (hereinafter referred to as “members of the Plaintiff Class” or “similarly situated Plaintiffs”), are past or present employees who work or worked for Defendants as described above. As employees performing duties for an enterprise engaged in commerce, the named Plaintiff and all members of the Plaintiff Class were also engaged in commerce as defined by the FLSA.

6. The claims brought herein by the named Plaintiff are identical or similar to the claims of other past and present employees who were subject to the non-compliant policies and practices alleged herein.

7. The non-compliant practices as alleged herein were part of a variety of practices and policies implemented and maintained by Defendants and are common to a group or “class” of past and present employees. Those past and present employees are entitled to receive Notice of these proceedings and afforded opportunity to join their individual claims.

IV. STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

Collective Action Under The Fair Labor Standards Act

8. Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §216(b), Count I of this action is brought by Plaintiff as an opt-in representative or collective action, on behalf of herself and other Plaintiffs similarly situated who have been damaged by Defendants’ failure to comply with 29 U.S.C. §201 et seq. and §251 et seq. Count II alleges a willful violation of the FLSA and seeks an additional third year of limitations. Count III seeks liquidated damages under the Fair Labor Standards Act, Section 260.

Illinois Minimum Wage Law

9. Pursuant to the Illinois Minimum Wage Law, 820 ILCS §105/1 et seq., Count IV of this action is brought by Plaintiff to recover unpaid back wages earned on or before the date three (3) years prior to the filing of this action. Each and every Plaintiff who joins this case in the future shall specifically adopt and assert the claims made under this Count IV.

V. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS RELEVANT TO ALL COUNTS

10. Plaintiff at all times pertinent to the cause of action was employed by Defendants, said employment being integral and indispensable to Defendants’ business.

In some instances, the unpaid time as described above should have been compensated at time and one-half the workers' regular hourly rates because if the unpaid time was properly treated as compensable, Plaintiff and others similarly situated would have worked over 40 hours in particular workweeks. In other instances, the unpaid time should have been compensated at the workers' regular hourly rates pursuant to the requirements of the federal and state statutes herein relied upon.
